River Cruises All-Inclusive

Exploring the country on a cruise ship - there is no better way to do this than by river. Cross the country on the Rhine, Danube or Moselle and enjoy the changing landscapes along the seemingly endless riverside promenades. On this somewhat different cruise, passengers discover cities, towns and idyllic landscapes in Germany and throughout Europe by water and can explore countless ports and historic town centers from the inside.

Our program at a Glance

There are no national borders for rivers, which is why many of our exclusive river cruises extend to Germany's most beautiful neighboring countries. Set sail from Germany, France or the Netherlands and visit Europe's most popular capitals by water: cruises via Austria, Hungary and Slovakia have breathtaking sights and new cultural highlights in store for you. In France, you can choose to sail along the Atlantic or Mediterranean coast and be enchanted by the magic of the country.
