TITLIS

TITLIS ROTAIR

ICE FLYER

TITLIS ROTAIR

The last leg of the journey up to the summit takes around five minutes. The views at over 3,000 metres above sea level are unique. Craggy rock faces are interspersed with deep crevasses and glistening snow fields. In order to give you the perfect perspective, the Titlis Rotair cable car completes one full rotation during the journey.

Europe is a fascinating continent with a rich mix of history, culture, and geography.

Here's a well-rounded overview:

Geography:

1. Location: Northern Hemisphere, mostly in the Eastern Hemisphere.
2. Borders:
 - North: Arctic Ocean
 - West: Atlantic Ocean
 - South: Mediterranean Sea, Black Sea, and Caspian Sea
 - East: Ural Mountains and Ural River (separating it from Asia)
3. Size: About 10.18 million km² (second smallest continent after Australia).
4. Countries: 44 to 50 (depending on definition and political recognition).
5. Largest country: Russia (European part).
6. Smallest country: Vatican City.

History:

1. Ancient Civilizations: Greece and Rome laid foundations for Western philosophy, politics, and law.
2. Middle Ages: Feudalism, the rise of kingdoms, and significant religious influence from the Catholic Church.
3. Renaissance: 14th–17th century revival of arts, science, and learning.
4. Industrial Revolution: Began in Britain in the 18th century, transforming economies and societies.
5. 20th Century: Two World Wars started in Europe; post-WWII saw the formation of the European Union to promote peace and cooperation.

Culture:

1. Languages: Over 200 languages; major ones include English, French, German, Spanish, Italian, and Russian.
2. Religion: Christianity is predominant (Catholic, Protestant, Orthodox), but there are also significant Muslim, Jewish, and secular populations.
3. Arts & Music: Birthplace of classical music (Beethoven, Mozart), world literature (Shakespeare, Tolstoy), and art movements (Renaissance, Impressionism).
4. Cuisine: Diverse—from French pastries and Italian pasta to Spanish tapas and Turkish kebabs.

Nature & Landmarks:

1. Mountains: Alps, Pyrenees, Carpathians.
2. Rivers: Danube, Volga, Rhine, Seine.
3. Famous sites: Eiffel Tower (France), Colosseum (Italy), Acropolis (Greece), Neuschwanstein Castle (Germany).

Fun Facts:

- Certain services such as air tickets, rail passes, museum entrances, event tickets, and special experiences are non-refundable once booked, regardless of the cancellation date.
- We strongly recommend purchasing comprehensive travel insurance to protect against unforeseen changes or cancellations.
- In the event of illness, serious injury, or death of the traveler or an immediate family member, all confirmed services including hotels, tours, transfers, and activities remain 100% non-refundable unless otherwise specified in writing by the supplier.
- Missed or cancelled flights, visa issues, or personal emergencies do not entitle the traveler to any refund for unused services.

2. Cancellation Fees

The following charges apply to cancellations of the entire package:

Days Before Departure:

More than 45 days
31–45 days
15–30 days
8–14 days
0–7 days / No Show

Cancellation Fee:

Loss of deposit (typically 10–20% of total package price)
25% of total package price
50% of total package price
75% of total package price
100% of total package price (no refund)

3. Special Conditions:

- Airline tickets booked through us are subject to the airline's fare rules and may be non-refundable or subject to additional penalties.
- Cruises, special events, or seasonal tours may have stricter cancellation terms that override the above schedule.
- For partial cancellations (e.g., removing a service or passenger), fees will be assessed based on the supplier's terms.
- If a traveler cannot join the trip due to illness, death, delayed flights, or visa issues, all unused services will be treated as a no-show and are non-refundable.

4. Refunds:

- Refunds, when applicable, will be processed within 21–30 business days after confirmation from all relevant suppliers.
- All refunds will be issued in the original form of payment and currency used for the booking.
- Bank charges and foreign exchange differences are the responsibility of the client.
- No refunds will be made for unused services once travel has commenced.

5. Force Majeure:

In cases of natural disasters, pandemics, political unrest, or other events beyond our control, we will make every effort to offer postponement, rebooking, or travel credit options. Cash refunds will only be possible if authorized by our suppliers.

Acknowledgement:

By confirming a booking, you acknowledge that you have read, understood, and agree to the above cancellation terms, including the non-refundable policy in cases of illness, injury, or death.
